

THE BUSHMEAT Promise

I UNDERSTAND that the bushmeat crisis is one of the most significant threats to the future of wildlife and human populations today.
I AGREE that a multinational collaborative effort of individuals, governments, and private institutions is essential to solving this crisis.
I PROMISE to take direct action to help solve the bushmeat crisis (check all that apply - even one promise will help!)

Become Aware!

I promise to learn more about the bushmeat crisis and how I can make a difference

Spread the Word!

I promise to share my knowledge about the bushmeat crisis with my friends, family, and colleagues

I promise to encourage five individuals or organizations to sign the Bushmeat Promise

Take Action!

I promise I will not eat bushmeat and will not consume products that have a negative impact on wildlife (including unsustainably harvested seafood)

I promise to support organizations and groups that are working to solve the bushmeat crisis

I promise to voice my support for policy and political decisions that will promote solutions to the bushmeat crisis

Personal Commitments

I will communicate with BCTF about progress I make on promises indicated above. Please contact BCTF by email at
